

INDIAN FOOD PRICES

Purpose: Explore the data and see the trend in the food prices in India.

Distribution of food prices by commodity

- Here average price of tea is the highest.
- And the average price of salt is the least.

Price of the category cereals and tubers VS Price of the category pulses and nuts

- The average price of cereals and tubers seems higher than pulses and nuts over the years.

Price by commodity of 10 years (2011 to 2022)

- Price is unusually high when the commodity is Tea(black).
- Sugar, Rice, Wheat, Oil(mustard) and Potatoes are most frequently occurring categories of commodity.

